

Complete your research and finish your plan. Get your supplies and make sure you have everything you will need if the stores are closed for several days. Whether you shelter in place or evacuate, make sure you understand the consequences of either decision.

<https://www.weather.gov/wrn/2020-hurricane-plan>

COMPLETE A WRITTEN PLAN.

Complete a Written Plan

Writing down your plan will help you avoid mistakes when faced with an emergency and ensure everyone in your home is prepared for the next storm.

Have photo documentation of valuables

Keep your important documents together for quick access

Share your plan

While preparing for hurricane season, follow the latest health guidelines from the CDC and your local officials.

